

Founder and President of HHH

Shortened Bio for Speaking & Media Introductions 2018

Internationally acclaimed CoverGirl model, actress, film and television star, producer, director, author, speaker, proud mother of three, and grandmother of four, Jennifer O’Neill has been noted as “one of a kind.” With thirty-seven-plus feature films, numerous television movies and series to her credit, Jennifer is the first to tell you she continues to be truly blessed.

Born in Rio de Janeiro, “Jen” started modeling at 15 in New York City for the famous Ford Agency as a way to acquire her first steed. Fame and fortune quickly led her to acting, starring with John Wayne in Rio Lobo for her film debut. She then accepted the leading role in the film, Summer of ’42: Her hauntingly beautiful portrayal of Dorothy made this young actress a household name. Jennifer’s leading men in film have included “The Duke”, Chuck Norris, Robert Duvall, Donald Sutherland and Anthony Quinn- to name a few.

Ms. O’Neill has been a constant worker for charitable causes having served as Chairperson for the American Cancer Society as well as hosting a World Vision Documentary in Africa concerning the HIV epidemic. She continues tirelessly to raise funds, write and direct short films, and make media appearances on behalf of pro-life efforts. Jennifer has been a keynote speaker for Women of Faith and Extraordinary Women Conferences, and now headlines her own “All That Glitters” Women’s Gatherings. In addition, she continues to work alongside organizations such as Focus on the Family and the Silent No More Awareness Campaign in support of post-abortive healing.

Most recently, Jen has recycled her passion for horses to benefit others on her farm in Nashville: As President and Founder of Hope and Healing at Hillenglade, HHH has served thousands of Active Service Members, Veterans, First Responders and their families with Equine-Assisted Programs, Events, Sessions and Retreats since 2010. HHH is a 501(c)3 Charitable Organization with all activities offered free of charge to our Heroes who have sacrificed so much on behalf of our freedoms and protection.

As an author, Ms. O’Neill has recently updated her autobiography, Surviving Myself... Her additional published works include: From Fallen to Forgiven/You’re Not Alone/A Circle of Friend-Just Off Main fiction series, her novel, All That Glitters/Your Red Letter Day short story-outreach project, Recycled Dreams, as well as her various Workbooks and Healing videos. All for the Glory of God!

Please visit www.jenniferoneill.com for links to her Project Abortion: the untold story videos as well as www.Hillenglade.org for more information on our Equine activities.